

WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH

Working in the 21st Century: Challenges Facing Professional Women

Date: Tuesday, March 10

Time: 2 p.m. - 3 p.m.

Location: CIC 120

Despite progress in workplace policies, systemic issues regarding women in the workforce still abound. Dr. Janet Peters will discuss the issues professional women face, including selection bias, disparities in negotiating, hurdles to promotion, and work-life balance.

Presented by Dr. Janet Peters, Psychology Department

Treasures in Your Attic: A Time Capsule Experience for Women's History Month

Date: Wednesday, March 11

Time: Noon - 1 p.m.

Location: Floyd Atrium

Students are invited to a brown bag lunch to explore archive boxes containing resources and artifacts informational to women's history.

Presented by Dr. Tracey Hanshew, History Department, and Dr. Patricia Wilde, English Department

MOSAIC Hot Topi(x) series

Abortion: A History of Contentious Public Policy

Date: Monday, March 23

Time: Noon - 2 p.m.

Location: MOSAIC Center, Floyd 140

The Hot Topi(x): Abortion event will start with Dr. Tracey Hanshew giving a lecture on the history of abortion in the U.S., followed by group discussions.

Presented by Dr. Tracey Hanshew, History Department

Women's History Spring Speaker

Mayumi Tsutakawa Topic:

Washington's Undiscovered Feminists

Date: Thursday, March 26

Time: 5:30 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

Location: East Auditorium

In commemoration of the 100th anniversary of women's suffrage, remember some of the remarkable, but often unsung, women of the Pacific Northwest. The speaker series includes a meet and greet with light appetizers at 5:30 p.m.

Presented by History Department and Humanities Washington

